Posted by ANAND on JULY 17, 2016

Hello friends, those who are currently doing MASTERS(M.TECH, MS) faces problems while finding online research papers(journals) and how to download them. Few are free to download and some required you to Pay for download.

I will show you two ways to download this papers for "free".

1. By using links:-

These link will work only for IEEE papers.

Anand

Step 1: Go to <http://ieeexplore.ieee.org/> and Select your paper, and see the URL of that page

Step 2: Copy the arnumber and replace it in the place of xxxxxxx in the below lin

Link 1: ieeexplore.ieee.org.sci-hub.tw/xpl/articleDetails.jsp?arnumber=xxxxxxxx [Select and Copy the link And Replace XXXXXX with arnnumber]

2. In this second method, you don't have to do anything just copy and paste.

these links will give you everything you want,

<http://sci-hub.tw/>

and follow this website -> https://new.vk.com/sci_hub for more information.

First method is part of this website (use first method when this websites are not working).

Now i will show you how to download papers using this websites:

For IEEE papers follow below steps : -

1. Go to <http://ieeexplore.ieee.org/Xplore/home.jsp>

3. Open the paper link you want to download and copy the whole link

The screenshot shows the IEEE Xplore Digital Library interface. At the top, there's a navigation bar with links to 'IEEE.org', 'IEEE Xplore Digital Library', 'IEEE-SA', 'IEEE Spectrum', and 'More Sites'. On the right, there are links for 'Cart (0)', 'Create Account', and 'Personal Sign In'. The main header features the 'IEEE Xplore® Digital Library' logo and the name 'Anand' in large letters. Below the header is a search bar with the placeholder 'Enter Search Term' and a 'Search' button. Underneath the search bar are tabs for 'Basic Search', 'Author Search', 'Publication Search', 'Advanced Search', and 'Other Search Options'. The main content area displays a search result for a paper titled 'Illuminant-Based Transformed Spaces for Image Forensics'. The paper has 5 author(s) listed, including Tiago Carvalho, Fábio A. Faria, Hélio Pedrini, Ricardo da S. Torres, and others. Below the title are buttons for 'Full Text' and 'Sign-In or Purchase'. At the bottom of the page, there are tabs for 'Abstract', 'Authors', 'References', 'Cited By', 'Keywords', 'Metrics', 'Similar', and 'Media'.

4. Now open any of this website

<http://sci-hub.tw/>

5. Now paste the paper link into URL box and click open, sometimes it will directly get downloaded and sometimes pass the CAPTCHA.

For ScienceDirect Papers follow the same procedure:-

1. link – > <http://www.sciencedirect.com/>

2. Copy the paper link you want to download and paste into the URL box

CSUR ACM Computing Surveys (CSUR)
 These comprehensive, readable tutorials and survey papers give guided tours through the literature and explain topics to those who seek to learn the basics of areas outside their specialties. The carefully planned and presented introductions in Computing Surveys (CSUR) are also an excellent way for professionals to develop perspectives on, and identify trends in complex technologies. Recent issues have covered image understanding, software reusability, and object and relational database topics.

JACM Journal of the ACM (JACM)
 The Journal of the ACM (JACM) provides coverage of the most significant work on principles of computer science, broadly construed. The scope of research covered encompasses contributions of lasting value to any area of computer science. To be accepted, a paper must be judged to be truly outstanding in its field. JACM is interested in work in core computer science and in work at the boundaries, both the boundaries of subdisciplines of computer science and the boundaries between computer science and other fields.

JDIQ Journal of Data and Information Quality (JDIQ)
JDIQ's mission is to publish high quality articles that make a significant and novel contribution to the field of data and information quality. JDIQ welcomes research contributions on the following areas, but not limited to: Information Quality in the Enterprise Context; Database related technical solutions for Information Quality; Information Quality in the context of Computer Science and Information Technology; Information Curation.

JDIQ accepts research conducted using a wide variety of methods ranging from positivists to interpretive methods, systems building descriptions, and database theory, as well as statistical analysis, mathematical modeling, quasi experimental methods, hermeneutics, action research, and case study. JDIQ accepts diverse research methods that are customary in different research backgrounds and traditions, both quantitative and qualitative. Flight delays are frequent all over the world (about 20% of airline flights arrive more than 15min late) and they are estimated to have an annual cost of billions of dollars. This scenario makes the prediction of flight delays a primary issue for airlines and travelers. The main goal of this work is to implement a predictor of the arrival delay of a scheduled flight due to weather conditions. The predicted arrival delay takes into consideration both flight information (origin airport, destination airport, scheduled departure and arrival time) and weather conditions at origin airport and destination airport according to the flight timetable. Airline flight and weather observation
